

2 CORINTHIANS

The letter of the law kills, but the spirit of the law gives life.

- Comforted by God that we may comfort others
- Glorifying in the Lord even though we have despaired of our life
- We forgive our brothers so they don't fall away from the faith
- Thanking God which causes us to triumph and makes aware the scents of His knowledge to all and in all places.
- The Spirit brings us to the knowledge of God in the face of Jesus Christ and gives us treasures in earthly vessels fixing our eyes on the eternal things
- We long to be present with God and out of these bodies through Jesus Christ; which died for us to bring us to life and gave us the spirit of reconciliation as we are separate from the worldly; because godly sorrow has created godliness
- Jesus became poor that we might become rich and each of His people shall share for equality
- God loves a cheerful giver; so, give with a cheerful heart and watch His grace abound
- Take every thought into obedience of Christ warring against spiritual wickedness glorying in the Lord being aware that Satan and his people transform themselves into false light
- Jesus Christ is always in His people and God's grace is sufficient
- Difficult times should be received with thanksgiving; which brings glory to God
- God's strength is made perfect in human weakness
- Paul went to heaven and experienced unspeakable things
- Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace shall be with you
